

The Illustrated Home Bible, a book of easy-to-read Bible stories with accompanying illustrations, was published jointly with the SRK in 2016.

Beginning in 2018 durable board books for little hands, were published as a response to requests for additional children's material.

Cultural and technological developments prompted frequent requests for digital material. In 2020 a Digital Communications committee was formed. Efforts to create a common platform for digital publications led to the creation of the Hearken app, released in 2022. Hearken provides LLC music and publications on personal devices.

In 2022, LLC published To the Sea: Short Fiction for Young Adults, a compilation of original fiction written by North American writers over the previous 25 years.

The increased use of digital music platforms allow for music to be published as digital-only albums. Publishing digitally reduces material costs and provides easy access to Christian music in an increasingly digital world.

Easter Messenger was launched in 2021 as an annual publication containing both biblical and seasonal articles inspired by Christ's suffering, death and resurrection.
