INTRODUCTION
June 2004

Jesus commanded His disciples to go and “teach all nations, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you.” (Matt. 28:19-20) The children of God today want to observe this command. Sunday school is an especially important time for the sowing of God’s Word in the hearts of children. The Sunday school teacher willingly accepts this responsibility.

Using this document

Study the materials before Sunday School begins in the fall. Become acquainted with both the layout and content expectations. If you have questions about how your topics fit in with those being taught at other levels, you will find a summary of the lesson titles for all grades included in your binder. If you want to know the specific objectives for some grade level, there will be a reference binder in your congregation library with a summary of all this information. Ask your Sunday School Director for these materials if you would find them helpful.

Each grade-level binder is set up in the following order:

- table of contents
- general reference pages
- your grade’s lesson topic list
- your grade’s lesson pages

Each lesson page includes the following:

- the lesson title
- what you want the students to learn (objectives)
- Scripture references
- vocabulary
- examples of additional resources
- memory work
- notes or teaching suggestions to support the lesson

Most grades have 24 lessons, although some have 25. In most cases, lesson 25 was regarded as an optional lesson for those classes that have enough time.

The objectives are listed at the top of the page. In some cases, the objectives may include more than you think you can reasonably teach in one Sunday School class period. If so, feel free to choose those objectives you find most important or interesting. It is not necessary to do everything. Remember that it's always better to learn less and learn it well than to cover more and walk away with little understanding.

Memory work

Included with each lesson in most grades you will find suggested memory work. There are several reasons for assigning memory work to students. Most important is that students acquire an intimate familiarity with Scripture and passages from books such as The Small Catechism that explain the fundamental beliefs of Christianity. During services, children will recognize Scripture portions from their memory work in Sunday School. Years later, words learned in Sunday School will come back to mind. The value of having these words deeply imbedded makes it worth spending the time on memory work.

Be sensitive to the varying abilities of children. If someone has difficulties with memorization, give that child options. One possibility is to have the child write out the memory passages.

There is a list summarizing the memory work for the grade toward the beginning of the binder. See the table of contents for the page number of this list. Although the memory work is assigned to specific lessons, the teacher is free to change the order or pace of the memory assignments.

There is a note of caution. The memory work is meant to be supplemental. With such a short period of time each Sunday, care must be taken not to use too much time on memory work. In younger grades, one possible way of dealing with this is to have students recite memory work in unison.

Remember to discuss the meaning of the words with the children.

Homework

Traditionally, the higher grades have been assigned homework to be completed for the next Sunday School class. Homework is important in that it provides an opportunity for students to study and consider God's Word during the week. This is important for young children as much as it is for older children.

It is also important to encourage parents to be a part of this work. Sunday School homework is not meant to be completed hastily in the car on the way to the church on Sunday morning. The reason for doing the homework and the importance of God's Word in the daily life of a believer is diminished by this. Although life for most families becomes increasingly busier, God's Word should still remain our first priority. This lesson is learned best at home.

Forms of homework: There are many forms of homework to consider. The traditional question set is only one possibility. Sometimes it is more effective to have students answer two or three questions that require the student to consider the meaning of the lesson as opposed to a long list of questions. A homework question can be posed in more than one way. Consider the following approaches:

Who did Jesus see as he was walking by the sea of Galilee? What were they doing? (Matt. 5:18) What did Jesus say to them? (Matt. 5:19)

--OR--

In Matthew 5:18, we read that Jesus saw Simon and Peter fishing beside the sea of Galilee. What did Jesus ask of them? What do you think Jesus was actually asking them to do with their lives?

What did Jesus do in the ruler's house? (Matt. 9:25)

--OR--

Read Matthew 9:18-19, 23-26. This tells about a miracle in which a girl died and Jesus brought her back to life. How did the people react when Jesus told the crowd that she was not dead? What do you think the people learned from this?

Questioning: One type of question only requires lifting a word or basic information from the text without understanding. The other type of question causes the student to think about what it means. The questions can be worded in a way that gives the student some information to help begin interpreting the text. Poor questions can err in one of two ways: either it can be one that requires no understanding to give a correct answer, or it can ask for so much general interpretation or analysis so as to be overwhelming to the student. Not only is it important to carefully craft homework questions, but it is also important to think about what questions will be used during the lesson. Think about this in advance. Good questioning techniques take work to develop.

Reading: Sometimes a reading assignment, such as an article from a recent Shepherd's Voice issue, can be effective. For young children, the teacher could instruct the child to ask someone at home to sit down and read a particular article or story with him during the week.

Journals: An effective strategy for homework (and note-taking) is to require students to keep a journal or notebook. This strategy tends to be most effective for third grade and up. All homework (and notes) can be kept together in the journal. Assignments could include specific questions to be answered, but they could also include writing a “journal entry” reflecting, for example, on what they learned from the previous lesson.

What to do with homework assignments: Keep in mind that homework assignments can be responded to in several ways.

- Often the teacher will go over the homework responses with the students at the next class.
- Sometimes the teacher can collect the homework, write responses for the students, and return them at the next class. (If the work is being kept in a notebook or journal, it is possible that the whole notebook would be collected.)
- Finally, it is possible that sometimes the homework is not shared with the class or read by the teacher at all. For example, maybe a lesson is teaching about prayer. A teacher may assign the student to write a personal prayer to God that will never be read by anyone else.

Use of the Bible: Encourage the use of the Bible. Remember that students need to be taught how to use the Bible. There are several ways to look up information, and students can be taught to use the reference section, concordance, and listing of the books at the beginning of the Bible. Students can be encouraged to follow along in their Bibles when the text is read during services. Auditory learners can use audio recordings of the Bible at home; many are available. After all, the Bible is the most precious of all books.

TEACHING SUGGESTIONS
June 2004

Teaching involves many skills that can be practiced and improved each time a lesson is taught. Each teacher has his own unique style. We can learn from each other, but it is important to remember that God has given you the gifts He intended for you. Use those gifts for the honor and glory of His name. The work of teaching children about the Word of God and the gospel of the forgiveness of sins is a most precious task.

We want to teach children in meaningful ways that they can relate to their own experiences. The following suggestions are intended to help promote effective learning:

- Preparation is of utmost importance! Numerous resources are given for the lessons. Most of these are not intended to be read to students (nor by students) during class time; rather, they are intended to be used by the teacher in planning the lesson. Of course, during the lesson it is good to read some Scripture passages, excerpts from resource materials, or supportive stories. It is also good for the students to look up a main Bible reference that will be read together or by the teacher. We want all students to know that all lessons are based on God's Word. The lesson itself is not a story or Bible text, however. The teacher must plan the lesson in advance!
- Visual aids (e.g., pictures, simple drawings, objects, overhead transparencies, maps) make the lesson more meaningful and interesting. Adding visuals significantly increases retention of learning. Understanding increases when concepts are connected to familiar ideas/images.
- Plan for variety to help keep attention. Providing opportunities for students' interaction increases interest and attention. Responding to questions and relating personal experiences concerning the theme of the lesson are important. Writing is another mode of learning (e.g., students could keep a notebook in which they write main points from each lesson as well as personal thoughts or experiences). Making pictures or diagrams can be another effective learning mode. There are endless possibilities, but variety is a powerful way to strengthen a lesson.

- Clarify vocabulary. Having children see, say, and even show the meaning of new words aids comprehension and retention. Students might write special words in their notebooks.
- Asking questions is an important part of learning. All children need opportunities to ask and answer questions, not just the knowledgeable or outgoing children. Some children will need encouragement, perhaps easier questions to foster confidence. It is important to allow wait time (time and opportunity for the brain to process information) when asking for a response.
- Students should demonstrate a summary of the learning in some way at the end of the lesson. This greatly increases retention and enables the teacher to check whether the students have learned the intended concepts.
- Pleasant learning climate, enthusiasm, and reinforcement of desirable behaviors promote positive attitudes toward learning what God's Word teaches.

LESSON PLANNING OUTLINE
June 2004

This lesson plan outline may be useful to the teacher when planning lessons. It calls attention to the important parts of a lesson.

There are always several stages to planning the lesson: preparation and gathering resources, building the lesson, implementing the lesson, and following up the lesson with homework and assessment of student learning.

Consider the following steps to determine whether each step is appropriate for the particular lesson or students, and decide whether it should be included in the lesson plan.

- I. Review of previous lesson: What concepts/memory work need to be reinforced?

- II. Objectives for new lesson: What learnings or key concepts do I want students to get?

- III. Procedures: What will I do to best help children learn this lesson?
 - A. Set: Lead into the new topic, get children ready to focus attention on the lesson
 - relate new learning to something students already know
 - involve all students
 - relate to the objective(s) of the new lesson

Examples:

- Show a wrapped gift and briefly discuss gifts prior to a lesson on the greatest gift.
- Have the children think about a time when they have seen a parade before discussing Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem.
- Discuss invitations and kinds of occasions the children might have received invitations for before a lesson on the parable of the man who sent his servant to invite guests to a wedding feast.

B. Objectives: Students are made aware of the objective(s) and the purpose of the learning.

- having objectives guides the teacher's planning for the lesson
- informing students of objective prior to lesson aids their learning
- students will know what they should have learned at the end
- answers "Why are we doing this?" and puts the learning in context

Examples:

- Today we will learn why God's Kingdom is sometimes compared to a flock of sheep, and we will be able to tell who is the shepherd of this flock and who are the sheep.
- Most of you have heard before of the Law and the Gospel; today we will learn what they are and which one belongs to the believer.
- We are going to hear what Jesus said about a widow who gave all her money; it will teach us how we are to give to the work of God's Kingdom.

C. Instructional Input: Students acquire new information about the knowledge they are to receive.

- main body of lesson
- think about what will be taught to the students, how the information will be taught, and how to check that they understand what is taught
- Question 1: What are the learnings?
- Question 2: What will the teacher do to provide the learnings?
- Question 3: How will the students show what they have learned?

Examples:

- I will tell you a story about two boys; think about which boy was walking in light and which in darkness. (teacher action)
- Look at this picture of a soldier; I will explain each of the pieces of armor that the soldier is wearing. (teacher action)
- Here are four possible reasons for baptizing a child, numbered one through four; signal me which you think is the best answer by holding up that number of fingers. (checking students' understanding)

- Write down the three parts of repentance that we talked about today. (checking students' understanding)
- Turn to your neighbor and summarize what you just learned. (checking students' understanding)

D. Guided Practice: Students are given the opportunity to use new knowledge with guidance.

- The teacher sometimes needs to circulate among students, observing and helping them during practice or some activity.
- The teacher should clarify or explain something before the lesson has ended.
- Remember that this clarification is important when an assignment will be given for outside of class.

E. Independent Practice: Students are given the opportunity to use new knowledge and/or skills independently.

- usually involves work that is assigned to be done outside of class
- may include memory work, answering questions, writing about the lesson, or other exercises

IV. Evaluation: How will you know what the students have learned?

A. In summarizing the lesson, the students should summarize what they have learned, not the teacher summarizing what he thinks he has taught.

B. How will the teacher check whether students gained the intended learning (e.g., questions, summary by learners, written responses or illustrations, etc.)?

Examples:

- List on your paper the four kinds of ground that we heard about in the parable that we studied today.
- List as many names for the Kingdom of God as possible and illustrate one of them.
- I will give each of you the chance to tell one thing you learned in today's lesson.

EFFECTIVE TEACHING SUMMARIES
June 2004

The Fundamentals

- Students really learn best by doing something with the intended learning.
- Students need to do their own thinking and exploration.

The Techniques

Initiating learning activities

- Relate new activities to student experience.
- When introducing “unique” materials, provide unstructured time.
- Introduce all new terms/vocabulary orally and in writing.
- Organize materials for quick and easy distribution.
- Keep teaching materials hidden until they are needed.
- Introduce each activity before distributing materials.

Managing Learning Activities

- At the start of each activity, check all of the students.
- Avoid “talking” over group noise. Insist on quiet attention.
- Separate “talk time” from “work time.”
- Avoid “telling” and concluding for students.
- Prompt student discussions by joining groups as an observer.
- Resolve differences by returning to the materials.

The Art of Questioning

- Don't ask “everyone questions.”
- Pause at least 3 to 5 seconds after asking each question.
- Avoid repeating student answers.
- Put student names at the END of directed questions.
- Turn student questions back to the students.

Instructions on Giving Instructions

- Make instructions as concrete as possible.
- Give instructions in “different ways.”
- Give instructions in “bite-sized chunks.”

Techniques for Concluding Learning Activities

- Alert students to the approaching end of each activity.
- Use a “group focus” to display information for discussion.
- Provide for “at-home” activities.

NOTES TO THE PRESCHOOL TEACHER
June 2004

The early grades involve young children who are still early in their development. The lessons should be designed to take this into account. Vocabulary should be kept at their level or defined if it is potentially new to the children.

The lessons are usually most effective if they actively involve the children. Activities such as role-playing, dramatizing, and illustrative stories engage the children and make the learning experience real. Use the children as “helpers” during the lesson. Although coloring a picture is one possible technique, it is not the only way to get the children to participate.

Use visual aids as often as possible. These can be illustrations or photos, but they can also be objects such as a flower, a mustard seed, or a piece of fruit.

When using a story as part of the lesson, it is most effective if the teacher knows the story well enough to tell it rather than read it. It is more likely to engage the listener and creates a more personal connection between the children and the story or story-teller.

Included with the lessons are some suggestions for alternate teaching methods. Feel free to adapt and experiment as you get to know the group of children you are teaching.

- Lesson 22 Jesus, Friend of Children
- Lesson 23 Friendship and Love
- Lesson 24 Faith as a Gift from God

Lesson 1: God's Word and the Holy Bible

- A. The student will understand that the Bible is God's Word.
- B. The student will understand that the Bible is the greatest of all books.
- C. The student will understand that everything that is written in the Bible is true.

Scripture: Ps. 68:1; 2 Pet. 1:21; Matt. 24:35

Vocabulary: Bible

Resources: Alphabet Tablet AALC, "U"

Teaching Suggestions: The teacher could bring enough Bibles so each student can hold and look at a Bible.

Lesson 2: Sin—Adam and Eve

- A. The student will be able to relate the story of Adam and Eve.
- B. The student will understand what sin is.
- C. The student will understand that sin causes God to grieve.
- D. The student will understand that any sin can be forgiven.
- E. The student will understand that Adam and Eve, being deceived by the devil, sinned through disobedience, but God forgave them.

Scripture: Gen. 3:1-15

Vocabulary: sin, grieve, forgive, deceive, disobedience

Resources: A Child's Garden of Bible Stories, pp. 16-18; Stories for Young Children, p. 9; Bible Stories Grade 1, p. 3; By Faith, p. 57; The Shepherd's Voice, January/February 1993, pp. 14-15

Teaching Suggestions: Visual aids (such as drawings/posters) would help to tell this story. It is more effective to know the story well enough that it can be told instead of read; the students feel a more personal connection with the “storyteller” and the story.

Lesson 3: Conscience

- A. The student will understand that his conscience is there to remind him about the difference between what is right and what is wrong.
- B. The student will understand that God has given all people a conscience.
- C. The student will understand that when he sins, it is the conscience that makes him feel bad. When sin is forgiven the conscience is clean.

Scripture: Acts 24:6; 1 Tim. 1:19

Vocabulary: conscience, sin

Resources: Bible Class Book II, pp. 12-13

Lesson 4: Forgiveness

- A. The student will understand that any sin can be forgiven.
- B. The student will understand that any believer can forgive sins in Jesus' name and blood.
- C. The student will understand that when a believer forgives, God forgives.
- D. The student will understand the importance of forgiveness in the home (e.g., between siblings, parents, parents and children).

Scripture: Mark 11:25; Luke 17:3-4; Eph. 1:7; Col. 1:14

Vocabulary: forgiveness, sibling

Resources: The Shepherd's Voice, May 2000, p. 2; The Shepherd's Voice, December 2001, p. 8; The Shepherd's Voice, May 2002, p. 6; The Shepherd's Voice, June/July 2002, p. 1-2; Stories for Young Children, pp. 6-7; Alphabet Tablet AALC, "F"

Lesson 5: Prayer—Three Men in the Furnace

- A. The student will be able to relate the story of the three men in the furnace.
- B. The student will understand how faith and prayer helped the three men in their difficulty.
- C. The student will understand that prayer is a personal conversation with God.
- D. The student will understand that God hears our prayers.
- E. The student will understand that he can pray to God in times of need and he can pray to God with thanks.

Scripture: Dan. 3:8-29; Matt. 21:22; 1 Thess. 5:17

Vocabulary: faith, difficulty, personal, conversation, need, thank

Resources: A Child's Garden of Bible Stories, pp. 71-73; The Shepherd's Voice, 1996 issues; The Shepherd's Voice, December 2001, p. 1-2; Bible Stories Grade 1, p. 25; Alphabet Tablet AALC, "P"

Teaching Suggestions: Visual aids (such as drawings/posters) would help to tell this story. It is more effective to know the story well enough that it can be told instead of read; the students feel a more personal connection with the "storyteller" and the story.

The teacher should also give the students an example of a simple prayer that he might say. For example, "Dear God, keep my sister safe when she goes to school," or "Dear God, thank you for giving me a mom and dad who love me, and help them to be patient with me."

Lesson 6: Respect and Obedience for Parents and Siblings

- A. The student will understand that God teaches him to be obedient to his parents; disobedience is sin.
 - B. The student will be able to define “respect.”
 - C. The student will understand that it is God’s wish that he show respect toward his parents and his siblings; they are a gift from God.
 - D. The student will be able to give examples of ways in which he can show respect toward his parents and siblings.

Scripture: Eph. 6:1-3; 1 Pet. 2:17

Vocabulary: obedience, respect, gift

Resources: The Shepherd’s Voice, July/August 1994, p. 7; The Shepherd’s Voice, May/June 1995, p. 10; The Shepherd’s Voice, August/September 1999, pp. 5, 10, 11; The Shepherd’s Voice, December 2001, p. 12

Teaching Suggestions: The teacher could use a black/white board or large piece of poster paper to draw simple illustrations of the students’ examples as they give them. (See Erkki Piri’s book, I Am the Good Shepherd.)

Lesson 7: Obedience to Rules

- A. The student will understand that one way he is protected and cared for is through rules.
 - B. The student will understand that God teaches him to be obedient to rules (home, school, country, etc). Disobedience to rules is sin.
 - C. The student will understand that even Jesus was obedient to rules.
 - D. The student will be able to give examples of rules.

Scripture: Deut. 11:26-28; Heb. 13:17

Vocabulary: protect, care, rule

Resources: The Shepherd's Voice, July/August 1994, p. 7; Alphabet Tablet AALC, "O"

Teaching Suggestions: The teacher could use a black/white board or large piece of poster paper to draw simple illustrations of the students' examples as they give them. (See Erkki Piri's book, I Am the Good Shepherd.)

Lesson 8: Listening and Behavior in Church as God's House

- A. The student will understand that church is God's House; it is where he can hear God speaking to him through the other believers.
- B. The student will understand that it is respectful to be quiet and listen while in church (for example during singing, sermons, discussions, Sunday School lessons, etc).
- C. The student will understand that disrespectful behavior in church is also disrespect toward God and His Word.

Scripture: Rom. 10:17

Vocabulary: listen

Resources: Alphabet Tablet AALC, "Q"

Lesson 9: Singing—Angels at Jesus' Birth

- A. The student will understand that the angels that brought the news of the birth of Jesus sang with joy.
- B. The student will understand that believers often sing to praise God when feeling joy or thankfulness.
- C. The student will understand that Songs and Hymns of Zion are the best songs to sing.
- D. The student will understand that God has given music as a gift.

Scripture: Luke 2:13-14; Ps. 100:2; Eph. 5:19

Vocabulary: news, joy, thankful, praise

Resources: A Child's Garden of Bible Stories, pp. 84-85; The Shepherd's Voice, December 1994, pp. 3, 4; The Shepherd's Voice, November/December 1993, p. 1; The Shepherd's Voice, December 2002, p. 2; Alphabet Tablet AALC, "V"

Teaching Suggestions: Visual aids would be useful. Another aid would be a sample LLC recording, particularly Christmas music that would illustrate the example in objective A. Sing a familiar Christmas song with the children and talk about what the message is.

A possible assignment would be to choose one verse of a song they might not know and have them practice it at home with their family during the week.

Students could make a simple angel. Many different materials can be used, including paper, fabric, or other materials.

Lesson 10: The Christmas Story

- A. The student will be able to relate the Christmas Story.
- B. The student will understand that even today the reason for Christmas is to celebrate and remember Jesus' birth.
- C. The student will understand that Jesus was born so that all people could have their sins forgiven.

Scripture: Luke 2:1-20

Vocabulary: celebrate, forgiveness, Savior

Resources: A Child's Garden of Bible Stories, pp. 82-83; The Shepherd's Voice, November/December 1993, p. 1; The Shepherd's Voice, December 1994, p. 1; The Shepherd's Voice, December 1997, p. 1-2; Shepherd's Voice, December 2001, p. 1; Stories for Young Children, p. 11; Bible Stories Grade 1, p. 29; Alphabet Tablet AALC, "I" and "J"

Teaching Suggestions: Visual aids (such as drawings/posters) would help to tell this story. It is more effective to know the story well enough that it can be told instead of read; the students feel a more personal connection with the "storyteller" and the story.

The student could make a simple tree ornament that illustrates some part of the Christmas story. For example, the teacher could cut pictures off old Christmas cards to make the ornament. Another possibility is to save the metal tops from frozen juice concentrate (they have no sharp edges) and cut out circular pieces of paper that fit inside the rim to draw a picture on. A ribbon can be glued to the juice top to hang it. Cut art is always easy and attractive if the teacher has the pieces cut out in advance. Simple shapes work fine. Angels, the manger, or shepherds are easily done this way. Stars made from many different kinds of materials also make good ornaments and represent an important part of the Christmas story.

Lesson 11: Sharing

- A. The student will understand that one way to show love to others is by being willing to share those things with which God has blessed him.
 - B. The student will understand that true sharing is done with a willing heart, not out of obligation.
 - C. The student will be able to give examples of how he can share with others.

Scripture: Ps. 37:21; Matt. 5:42; Luke 6:38; Acts 20:35

Vocabulary: share, willing, blessed

Resources: The Shepherd's Voice, October/November 1996, p. 8

Teaching Suggestions: The teacher could use a black/white board or large piece of poster paper to draw simple illustrations of the students' examples as they give them. (See Erkki Piri's book, I Am the Good Shepherd.)

This is the kind of lesson in which "role play" works well.

Lesson 12: Shepherd and Sheep

- A. The student will understand that Jesus is like a shepherd.
- B. The student will understand that children of God are like sheep.
- C. The student will understand that Jesus cares for His children as a shepherd cares for his sheep.

Scripture: John 10:14; Ps. 23:1

Vocabulary: shepherd, care

Resources: The Shepherd's Voice, October/November 2000, p. 2; The Shepherd's Voice, October/November 2003, p. 1; Stories for Young Children, p. 31

Teaching Suggestions: Visual aids help with this lesson. Cut-art pictures are easy for the children to put together if the pieces are cut out in advance. For example, using cottonballs for sheep, and cut paper shapes to make the shepherd as shown. Instead of cutting out the staff, a pipe cleaner or candy cane could be used.

Lesson 13: Trust—David and Goliath

- A. The student will be able to relate the story of David and Goliath.
- B. The student will understand that David trusted in God when he went to Goliath.
- C. The student will understand that God saw that David trusted and believed, and He took care of David.
- D. The student will understand that he can trust in God, who promises to care for him.

Scripture: 1 Sam. 17:4-54; Prov. 3:5-6

Vocabulary: trust, giant, promise

Resources: A Child's Garden of Bible Stories, pp. 56-58; Children's Stories of the Bible from the New and Old Testaments, pp. 59-63; The Shepherd's Voice, January/February 2004, p. 2; Songs and Hymns of Zion, "I Am Not Too Little," v. 7; Alphabet Tablet AALC, "D"

Teaching Suggestions: Visual aids (such as drawings/posters) would help to tell this story. It is more effective to know the story well enough that it can be told instead of read; the students feel a more personal connection with the "storyteller" and the story.

Another visual aid involves using people. Have the smallest child stand in front of the class beside a large/tall adult (possibly with "armor" for protection such as a metal garbage can lid and hardhat) to discuss the seeming impossibility of a child defeating an armored giant.

Lesson 14: Thankfulness and Faith—Ten Lepers

- A. The student will be able to relate the story of the ten lepers.
 - B. The student will understand that the sick men had heard that Jesus had the power to heal them and came to Him to be healed.
 - C. The student will understand that the one man who returned to thank Jesus was the only one who truly understood through faith that only Jesus has the power to heal.
 - D. The student will understand that he should be thankful for all blessings from God.

Scripture: Luke 17:11-17

Vocabulary: leper/leprosy, heal, power

Resources: A Child's Garden of Bible Stories, pp. 122-123; Children's Stories of the Bible from the Old and New Testaments, p. 206; Stories for Young Children, p. 25; Bible Stories Grade 1, p. 49

Teaching Suggestions: Visual aids (such as drawings/posters) would help to tell this story. It is more effective to know the story well enough that it can be told instead of read; the students feel a more personal connection with the “storyteller” and the story.

To conclude the lesson, the teacher could have the students help to decide what an appropriate prayer of thankfulness could include. The teacher could use the children's ideas to write a prayer on a board or poster paper and read it in conclusion. This would reinforce the earlier lesson on prayer.

Lesson 15: Temptations

- A. The student will understand that all people are tempted to do sin.
 - B. The student will understand that God is more powerful than the devil, and God can help to overcome temptations.
 - C. The student will understand that he can pray to God when he is tempted.
 - D. The student will understand that when he falls into sin, he can be forgiven.
 - E. The student will be able to give examples of temptations.

Scripture: Heb. 2:18; Matt. 6:13; Luke 22:40; Rev. 3:10

Vocabulary: temptations, overcome

Resources: The Shepherd's Voice, May 1999, p. 12

Teaching Suggestions: The teacher could use a black/white board or large piece of poster paper to draw simple illustrations of the students' examples as they give them. (See Erkki Piri's book, I Am the Good Shepherd.)

Lesson 16: God Is Always with Us—Jacob in the Wilderness

- A. The student will become familiar with the story of Jacob in the wilderness of Bethel.
- B. The student will understand that Jacob was afraid, but he knew that God was with him.
- C. The student will understand that Jacob was thankful that God was with him when he was alone, so he promised to build an altar to show his thanks to God.
- D. The student will understand that God will always help and protect him and will be wherever he is.

Scripture: Gen. 28:10-22; Matt. 28:20

Vocabulary: wilderness, altar, protect

Resources: A Child's Garden of Bible Stories, pp. 31-32; Alphabet Tablet AALC, "Y"

Teaching Suggestions: Visual aids (such as drawings/posters) would help to tell this story. It is more effective to know the story well enough that it can be told instead of read; the students feel a more personal connection with the "storyteller" and the story.

Lesson 17: The Easter Story

- A. The student will be able to relate the story of Good Friday and Easter Sunday.
- B. The student will know that Jesus died to save all people from their sins. He rose from the dead so we could go to heaven.
- C. The student will understand that Jesus is in heaven.

Scripture: Matt. 27, 28:1-10; Mark 15, 16:1-11; Luke 23, 24:1-12; John 18:12-19:42, 20:1-18

Vocabulary: salvation, crucify

Resources: A Child's Garden of Bible Stories, pp. 135-138; Children's Stories of the Bible from the Old and New Testaments, pp. 233-237; Stories for Young Children, p. 25; Bible Stories Grade 1, pp. 56, 59; The Shepherd's Voice, March/April 1992, p. 1

Note: Stress the importance of the Easter season to believers.

Teaching Suggestions: Visual aids (such as drawings/posters) would help to tell this story. It is more effective to know the story well enough that it can be told instead of read; the students feel a more personal connection with the "storyteller" and the story.

Making pictures of Jesus on the cross or the angel at the empty tomb would be appropriate. If the teacher wanted to emphasize the contrast between the death on Good Friday and the celebration of new life on Easter Sunday, paper color could be used. For example, Good Friday pictures made on a black background and Easter Sunday pictures made on a yellow background.

Lesson 18: Honesty

- A. The student will understand that God's Word instructs him to be honest; lying is a sin.
- B. The student will understand that God knows everything; for example, God knew when Cain was not honest with Him.

Scripture: II Cor. 13:7; Prov. 12:22, 13:5; Dan. 6:6-28; Gen. 4:9-10

Vocabulary: honesty, lying

Resources: The Shepherd's Voice, August/September 2002, p. 1, 6;
Alphabet Tablet AALC, "T"

Lesson 19: Kindness—Woman at the Well

- A. The student will understand that Jesus always treated people with kindness.
- B. The student will understand the “golden rule” as Jesus taught it.
- C. The student will be able to relate the story of the woman at the well.

Scripture: John 4; Matt. 7:12

Vocabulary: kindness, well

Resources: The Shepherd’s Voice, January/February 1995, pp. 4-5; The Shepherd’s Voice, March/April 1998, pp. 2-3; The Shepherd’s Voice, January/February 2003, p. 2

Teaching Suggestions: Visual aids (such as drawings/posters) would help to tell this story. It is more effective to know the story well enough that it can be told instead of read; the students feel a more personal connection with the “storyteller” and the story.

Lesson 20: Patience

- A. The student will understand what it means to be patient.
 - B. The student will understand that God is patient with him, even when he sins.
 - C. The student will understand that he should be patient toward others.
 - D. The student will understand that throughout the Bible, God was patient with believing people.

Scripture: Luke 21:19; 2 Sam. 12:13; John 16:8; Rom. 5:20, 15:5

Vocabulary: patient

Resources: The Shepherd's Voice, May/June 1995, pp. 1-3, 12

Lesson 21: God Provides for Our Daily Needs

- A. The student will understand that God knows what each one needs and provides everything he needs.
 - B. The student will understand that he should be thankful to God for providing for him.
 - C. The student will understand that God will never forsake any person who believes in Him.
 - D. The student will be able to give examples of spiritual and temporal needs that God provides.

Scripture: Deut. 31:6; Matt. 6:8, 6:30-32; Heb. 4:16; 2 Cor. 4:18

Vocabulary: need, provide

Note: The words “forsake,” “spiritual,” and “temporal” are not intended to be used with preschool students. The teacher should explain it so that the meaning comes through without introducing the vocabulary which would distract from the message.

Each child could make a picture of something God provides for them. The teacher could then take each child's illustration and combine them to make a composite picture.

Lesson 22: Jesus, Friend of Children

- A. The student will understand that Jesus was a friend to children and wanted to spend time with them when He was on earth (for example, held them on his lap, spoke to them, blessed them).
 - B. The student will understand that Jesus is a friend to him personally.
 - C. The student will understand that Jesus helps him in times of need, just as he would help a friend in need.
 - D. The student will understand that children have an important place in God's kingdom.

Scripture: Matt. 18:1-6, 19:14

Vocabulary: friend

Resources: A Child's Garden of Bible Stories, pp. 114-115; The Shepherd's Voice, January/February 1994, p. 5; The Shepherd's Voice, May 2002, p. 8-9; Stories for Young Children, p. 21; Songs and Hymns of Zion, "Friend of Children, God's Dear Son," v. 1

Teaching Suggestions: Visual aids, such as a picture of Jesus with children on his lap, are helpful.

Lesson 23: Friendship and Love

- A. The student will understand that God gives him friends to help him.
- B. The student will understand that God teaches that he should love his friends.
- C. The student will be able to give examples of ways in which he can show love to his friends.
- D. The student will understand how the “golden rule” applies to friendships.

Scripture: Job 42:10; Song of Sol. 5:1; John 15:13

Vocabulary: friendship, love

Resources: The Shepherd's Voice, January/February 1994, pp. 8-10; The Shepherd's Voice, June/July 2002, p. 9

Teaching Suggestions: The teacher could use a black/white board or large piece of poster paper to draw simple illustrations of the students' examples as they give them. (See Erkki Piri's book, I Am the Good Shepherd.)

The teacher could cut out the letters to spell “love” and teach the children to write/spell the word. It would be easiest done in all capital letters. Cut-out paper chains done by folding paper accordian-style and cutting out children holding hands are fun for children.

Lesson 24: Faith as a Gift from God

- A. The student will understand that a gift is something that is given to someone freely.
 - B. The student will understand that all people are sinners and as such do not deserve the gift of faith and the promises of faith.
 - C. The student will understand that God gives faith as a gift to each believer.

Scripture: Eph. 2:8; Matt. 10:8; Rom. 3:24; 1 Cor. 2:12

Vocabulary: gift, faith, free, deserve

Resources: The Shepherd's Voice, March/April 1995, p. 1

Teaching Suggestions: The teacher could bring a wrapped box as a visual aid; use this to discuss what a gift is (e.g., not given because we are deserving, given with love, given requiring nothing in return, etc.). Some gifts can be put in a box and wrapped in special paper. However, some gifts can't be put in a box; we shouldn't forget to be thankful for those gifts.

The children could tell the teacher words that are related to what faith means. The teacher could write the words on cards, read them, and put them in the gift box.
